

Explanatory Note: This is a pictorial representation of the proposed organizational structure in the form of a fruit tree. The Area Groups represent the roots, the trunk and upper part the public identity, and the fruits are the various work projects. All energy is derived from the roots and flow upward through the trunk and branches to the fruit(work groups).